

Grocery Associate

Are you passionate about health and wellness, love fresh food and enjoy interacting with others?

We are looking to add a team member to our grocery department. This position consists of unloading shipments, stocking products, and helping customers locate items.

Applicants must thrive in a fast-paced environment, be able to lift at least 50 lbs, and be available to work both nights and weekends.

This position is available as part-time or full-time.